	Budget: Jim Weider, ACMA PTO Treasurer reviewed the PTO Budget. PTO expenses have slowed since the first of the year. Donations have continued to come in and will be helpful to support upcoming PTO budget obligations for the Dance Department (recent two-day field trip event), BallPoint Anthology, State Thespian Festival in Salem, OR and many others. The PTO is appreciative of all donations, including in kind donations, to assist in supporting ACMA students, departments, programs and staff. Missing the ACMA Spectacular Annual Fundraiser makes PTO member donations more meaningful. THANK YOU TO ALL PTO families for their ongoing support.	Jim Weider
	Budget Discussion. Beaverton Educational Foundation had previously provided ACMA Ballpoint Anthology a grant to support the program. The grants were no longer available beginning in 2020-2021 school year, because grants are now available for new programs only. Ongoing programs such as Ballpoint are no longer eligible. ACMA PTO agreed in 2020-2021 to include a budget line item to assist ACMA Ballpoint Anthology. Unfortunately, the information was overlooked in the transition to the 2021-2022 PTO Budget	Jenny Anderson development and approval. Nevertheless, the PTO will cover the projected costs of approximately $300. The cost will depend on the size of the manuscript and if the program participants will have a year-end party. longer available because grants are limited to new programs. Ballpoint, for perspective, in 2020 the cost was $230 for the Anthology Book.

The PTO, nonetheless, would like to celebrate the ACMA Seniors. Ideas were discussed. One idea the PTO will research is tickets to a Portland Armory performance of “Rent” or similar. A survey of seniors may also be conducted to identify events the seniors will participate in. Please attend April 12th PTO meeting to share your ideas and learn more.	ALL
